AMERICA'S NIGHT OUT AGAINST CRIME AUGUST 4

TUSTIN, Calif. – On August 4, 2009, The Tustin Police Department will participate in the 26th Annual National Night Out (ANNO). Sponsored by Target and The District at Tustin Legacy, the event will be from 6:00 until 9:00 p.m. at The District, located at 2300 Park Avenue.

“National Night Out is an opportunity for the citizens of Tustin to get to know their police department and take away valuable information about crime, drug and violence prevention, “ said Police Chief Scott Jordan. “Meeting our constituency in this casual type of venue helps generate support for, and participation in, local anti-crime programs and strengthens neighborhood spirit and police-community partnerships.”

In addition to the public having the opportunity to become educated on crime prevention through informational booths, activities will include police and fire vehicles, face painting, free photo with police vehicles, live music, and hourly door prizes.

BUILDING OUR FUTURE
HONORING OUR PAST

NNO is designed to heighten crime and drug prevention awareness; generate support for, and participation in, local anti-crime programs; strengthen neighborhood spirit and police-community partnerships; and send a message to criminals letting them know that neighborhoods are organized and fighting back.

Last year's National Night Out campaign involved citizens, law enforcement agencies, civic groups, businesses, neighborhood organizations and local officials from over 15,000 communities from all 50 states, U.S. territories, Canadian cities and military bases worldwide. In all, over 37 million people participated in National Night Out 2008.

Other participating organizations will include Orange County Fire Authority, Boys and Girls Club of Tustin, Tustin Family and Youth Center, Target, OC Human Relations, Community Service Programs (CSP) "positive Action Toward Health," Farmer's Insurance, California Chapter 4 of the American Academy of Pediatrics, TJ Maxx, PetSmart, Chick-Fil-A, Whole Foods Market, and Daphne's.
