Tustin, CA – The Tustin Tiller Days Committee and the Tustin Parks and Recreation Department are proud to present the 2017 Tustin Tiller Days Parade on Saturday, October 7 at 10:00 a.m. The parade is a main highlight of the Tustin Tiller Days festival, which is a three-day celebration of Tustin's farming heritage. The festival will be held on Friday, October 6 through Sunday, October 8 at Columbus Tustin Park, 14712 Prospect Avenue. The festival hours are Friday, 4:00 p.m. to 11:00 p.m.; Saturday, 11:00 a.m. to 11:00 p.m.; and Sunday, 11:00 a.m. to 8:00 p.m. (Carnival open to 10:00 p.m.). No admission fee is required to attend the parade or festival.

Traditionally, the Tustin Tiller Days Parade has been a call to celebration for both residents and non-residents of Tustin. A central piece of the event is featuring local celebrities, which is a great way of delivering hometown pride to the streets of Tustin. This year as we celebrate the 60th anniversary of Tustin Tiller Days, the committee is extending a special invitation for local celebrities to be a part of this annual tradition and make this year's parade a memorable one. Past celebrities who have participated in the event include Cathy Silvers of Happy Days; Commander Chuck Street of KIIS FM; Charlie Robinson of "Apocalypse Now"; Matthew Lillard, famous for the movie "Scream"; Rex Hudler, Angel's baseball color analyst; Wing Lam, Wahoo's Fish Taco co-founder; Jesse Sapolus, four-time NFL Super Bowl Champion; Richard Karn of "Home Improvement"; and more!
