Mayor Al Murray and the Tustin City Council will host a Disaster Preparedness Expo on Saturday, April 28, 2018 from 10:00 a.m. -2:00 p.m. at the Tustin Hangar (Warner/Legacy Road).

The Expo is free to the public and will feature emergency response vehicles, equipment, displays and informational booths. Ready America will also feature the "Big Shaker," the world's largest mobile earthquake simulator and the Orange County Fire Authority will have live demonstrations at 11am, 12pm and 1pm.

On-line registration and a Liability Release and Assumption of Risk form are required for entrance to the event. Links for both can be found on the City's website homepage at www.tustinca.org. Walking shoes are preferred and sunscreen and a hat are recommended for the outdoor demonstrations.

For more information or if you are a vendor interested in participating in the Disaster Preparedness Expo, please contact Joe Meyers, Tustin Emergency Management Coordinator, at jmeyers@tustinca.org.
