The City of Tustin is offering residents free, fill-your-own sandbags to residents in order to help protect personal property from rain and mud.

Self service sandbags can be found at the following locations:

- Columbus Tustin Gymnasium, 17522 Beneta Way (northwest corner of parking lot)
- Peppertree Tract, Katherine Spur and Sycamore Ave. (dead end of Sycamore on the east side)

Sandbags, shovels and sand are in place for filling. Each bag, when properly filled, weighs approximately 30 lbs. and most passenger cars can handle between 10-15 bags. Residents may be asked to provide their driver's license displaying a Tustin address.

For more information about the City's sandbag program, please call the Public Works Department at (714) 573-3350.
