BUSINESS LICENSE TAX FEES

(Ordinance No. 1270; 2003)

Every person who engages in business within the City of Tustin and/or has an established place of business within the City limits shall pay a license tax based upon the gross receipts of business done within the City, unless otherwise specified in the City Code (see enumerated business below). Gross receipts shall be based on the prior years' receipts, or in the case of a new business, calculated on current year's estimates.

Payment of business license fee and/or approval of business license does not waive or preclude any other licenses or permits required by Tustin City Code. The license tax period is calendar year January 1 through December 31. Pro-rated fees for new businesses are effective April 1, July 1 and October 1. For failure to pay the license tax when due, a penalty will be added of twenty-five percent (25%) of such license tax on the last day of each month after the due date thereof, provided that the amount of such penalty shall not exceed one hundred percent (100%) of the amount of the license tax due.
