

Brandon Jay Arambula

Private First Class Brandon Jay Arambula. Born on May 9, 2002, Private First Class Brandon Jay Arambula was a remarkable young man who dedicated his life to serving his country with honor and distinction. At just 20 years old, he tragically passed away on September 4, 2022, while on active duty. Brandon's commitment to service and exemplary leadership left an enduring legacy that continues to inspire those who knew him.

Brandon Arambula's journey to becoming a Marine began at Santiago High School in Corona, CA, where he excelled both academically and athletically, serving as the star quarterback for the school's football team. His leadership on the field foreshadowed his future role in the military.

After graduating from high school, Arambula made the admirable decision to join the U.S. Marine Corps. He was stationed at Twentynine Palms, serving as an infantryman with the 2nd Battalion, 7th Marines at the Marine Corps Air Ground Combat Center. His commitment to his duty and his comrades was unwavering.

Described by his peers and superiors as hardworking and a true leader, PFC Arambula earned the respect and admiration of everyone around him. His love for the Corps and his promising future was evident to all who knew him. His dedication, resilience, and leadership qualities made a profound impact on those he served with.

Private First Class Brandon Jay Arambula's memory will be lovingly treasured by his parents, Patty Jimenez and German Arambula, his brother USMC CPL German II Arambula, sisters Alyssa and Arianna Arambula, and numerous other family members and friends, as well as his newly gained brothers in the United States Marine Corps. We have vowed to keep his legacy alive and honoring his memory.
