We hope you enjoyed a fun-filled week! Don't forget to head to our City Website and bookmark www.tustinca.org/historicpreservation to continue to learn about Tustin's history, and be a part of its lasting legacy, all year long.

Tustin's Historic Preservation Week celebrated the city's military history and community heritage with a week full of fun, education, and reflection.

Event Highlights:

- Movie Night: Screening of The Lost Battalion honoring Tustin hero Nelson Holderman.
- Old Town Residential Walking Tour: Guided tour spotlighting historic homes and military stories.
- Historic Resource Table at Tustin Library: Books, facts, and tributes to Tustin's fallen heroes.
- Sunset Market Meet & Greet: Community outreach at the lively Old Town Sunset Market.
- Tustin Icons Cemetery Tour: Guided tour honoring iconic Tustin residents with military ties.

Special Focus Areas:

- Celebrating local military heroes and Tustin's deep roots in service.
- Honoring Phil Cox's lifelong dedication to preserving Old Town history.
- Showcasing memorials like Veteran's Sports Park, Victory Park, and Tustin Ranch's tribute street names.

Continuing the Legacy:

Residents were encouraged to stay connected to Tustin's history year-round by visiting www.tustinca.org/historicpreservation.

Thank you for joining us in honoring Tustin's past and shaping its future!
