

Clarence Darrow

Clarence Darrow enlisted in the Army during the Korean War. He and Mary Jane were married on August 28, 1950, in Flint, Michigan before he was ordered to report duty into the United States Army on October 4, 1950, at Fort Wayne, Detroit. While in the Army, Clarence served in the 114th Engineer Combat Battalion as a First Sergeant. Clarence and Mary Jane traveled to several bases within the United States during his time in the Army. He was honorably discharged in October 1952 after which he and Mary Jane moved back to Flint, Michigan to establish their home. They raised 3 children, Craig, Kurt, and Kelly.

Clarence's career in engineering took them to Northville, Michigan, Jacksonville, Alabama, and Cedar Rapids, Iowa. He was recruited in 1979 by Rockwell International which led to a move to Tustin, California. A few years later he went to work as Maintenance Supervisor for the Santa Ana School District which he enjoyed until his retirement in 1997. In Tustin, Clarence was very active at Aldersgate United Methodist Church and the Tustin American Legion Post 227.
