

Sy Ellis

Sy Ellis joined the U.S. Army within three months of graduation from USC with a dual major of Real Estate and Finance in the summer of 1965.

He received most of his military training at the Armor School at Ft. Knox, Kentucky where he later entered the Armor OCS program.

He earned his Second Lieutenant gold bars in Dec. 1966.

Sy spent much of his military time in the south: Ft. Jackson, SC, Ft. Gordon, GA, Ft. Knox, KY, Ft. Eustis, VA, and later on special assignments through the Oakland, CA Army Base.

He was released from the Army as a First Lieutenant in Dec. 1968.

In Sy's business career, he was a proven professional with over 50 years of experience in all aspects of the real estate industry.

He has served as the president at such prestigious bank-owned firms as The Bank of Beverly Hills Mortgage Company and the Orange National Bank Mortgage Company.

He was elected by his peers to the presidency of the Southern California Mortgage Bankers Association, the oldest and largest real estate lending association of its kind in the western United States.

He has personally arranged more than two billion dollars in real estate financing.

Annually, for 15 consecutive years, he was a guest lecturer on Construction Lending and Development at Santa Monica City College.

Mr. Ellis was a United States Federal Court-approved Real Estate Expert, served on numerous occasions as a CA Superior Court Real Estate Receiver and has been listed in Who's Who in America.
